Nel medioevo erano di primaria importanza perché, essendo gli unici mulini all'interno della cerchia muraria, assicuravano agli abitanti il sostentamento anche in caso di assedio.

I mulini che punteggiano ancora oggi il territorio sono lì a dimostrarlo. Oggi molti di essi non sono più in funzione ma la loro scenografica presenza rimane tale.

Oggi sfondo prediletto per le foto dei turisti e rifugio per le coppie romantiche, è indubbiamente il luogo più suggestivo di Portogruaro.

In the Middle Ages they were of primary importance because, being the only mills within the walls, they ensured sustenance for the inhabitants even in the event of a siege.

The mills that still dot the area are there to prove it. Today many of them are no longer in operation but their scenographic presence remains such.

Today a favorite backdrop for tourist photos and a refuge for romantic couples, it is undoubtedly the most suggestive place in Portogruaro.
